Dear Mrs. Manley:

I felt ^{so} sure you would be at the game Sunday, and we could straighten everything out, that I didn't write you. But when I called your home Sunday morning, and Abe told me you were in Phila., I was disappointed.

At any rate, I would like to see you personally, and go over all the items, and get things adjusted satisfactorily. Are you going to be in Phila. again soon? If not, I may be able to see you in N. Y. Monday, as I expect to go to the fight. Let me hear which is best for you.

Sincerely,
Ed. Gottlieb
